

Akshayaa Shrestha is the Data Analyst for the Eos Foundation. She joined the organization in 2021. She supports research operations, data collection, analysis, and visualization procedures for the foundation.

Akshayaa did her undergraduate in Applied Mathematics and Data Analysis from Wesleyan College. She is originally from Nepal and grew up in the capital city, Kathmandu. She is fluent in three languages and when not at office, you will find her playing Ping-Pong or cooking cuisines.